Verification

- The business license applicant identified above filed an original application for medical cannabis business license, on or before December 30, 2022.
- The business license applicant above received a Notice of Deficiency, which was sent by AMCC on February 13, 2023, pursuant to Rule 538-x-3-.08(1).
- The original filed application of the business license applicant identified above has been returned to the applicant for the purpose of correcting the deficient items identified in the Notice of Deficiency.
- The business license applicant identified above has thoroughly reviewed the Notice of Deficiency and made changes to the original filed application to correct the deficient items identified therein.
- The business license applicant identified above must provide explanation below of any deficient item identified in the Notice of Deficiency that is not included in the corrected application filing (or note "NONE" if all identified deficiencies are included in the corrected application filing). The applicant has the exclusive burden, either by proper correction or explanation for its decision not to correct an identified deficient item, to show that its corrected application is no longer deficient.

- The business license applicant identified above has received an invoice for the corrected application filing fee in the amount of $1,250.00.
- The deadline to file the corrected application, and the corrected application filing fee, is March 3, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. CT. Any petition for additional time based on extraordinary circumstances (FORM T) must be filed at or before 4:00 p.m. CT, on March 3, 2023.
- The deadline to submit this verification form is March 3, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. CT. All submissions must be received, by the deadline, at applications@amcc.alabama.gov.
- The business license applicant identified above, if making any changes other than those required to correct the deficient items identified in the Notice of Deficiency, has filed a timely and complete Petition for Amendment Due to Extenuating Circumstances (FORM N and FORM O).
- The corrected application, as filed by the business license applicant identified above, includes a full refiling of all required parts of the original application (whether or not modified) and such amended corrected application does not incorporate by reference or adopt any portion of the original filing. (Any application item or exhibit which contains no correction will remain, as originally filed, in the application portal.)
- The business license applicant identified above will, within seven (7) business days of the date on which the corrected application was filed, submit "Original" and "Redacted" USBs of all refiled materials (whether or not modified), in accordance with Section 1.8 of the Application Guide.
- The business license applicant identified above will, within seven (7) business days of the date on which the corrected application was filed, submit a "Redline" USB showing a redline version of any changes made to the application and/or exhibits.
- The Commission, at its meeting on April 13, 2023, will vote to accept or reject timely and properly filed proposed corrected applications.
- The applicant's failure to timely and properly file any item required with its corrected application may result in the Commission's denial of the applicant's proposed corrected application.

The undersigned hereby verifies that the applicant understands and will comply with the requirements hereinabove, and all other requirements of the AMCC rules.
